Foreword

The Olmos Staff has presented as many and as varied scenes as possible—for high school life itself is variety personified. We have taken as our theme the new Alamo Heights High School. The pictures shown are representative of our new building and the multitude of activities it houses.

The Senior class of 1951 has been especially privileged in that we have received the single honor of being the first graduating class from the new Alamo Heights High School. Therefore, it is only proper that this annual—a record of achievement—be dedicated to the new high school, of which we are so proud. It is our earnest hope that we have, in some measure, helped to establish those traditions and policies which quickly become a vital part of all school life, and that they have been wise ones.

Activities

The National Honor Society, one of Alamo Heights' most distinguished organizations, is led by Miss Anna Belle Gilmer. Election to this group is the highest honor that the school can bestow on members of the student body. From the outstanding students of the Junior and Senior classes only those deemed most worthy of the honor are elected. Comprising the qualities of leadership, scholarship, service, and character, the members are representative of the best that the high school can present.

*Elected in junior year.

Activities

The Quill and Scroll, the honorary journalistic organization of Alamo Heights, is under the sponsorship of Miss Bessie Brigham and Mr. Homer Utley. This organization is devoted to bestowing recognition upon those students that have displayed unusual talent and intent in matters pertaining to the school paper and the annual. The students elected to this organization have displayed these interests and talents to an extraordinary degree and are devoted to the cause of better journalism.

Activities

The Service Club, an honorary girls' organization; is sponsored by Mrs. Neda Schaeffer. The girls are elected on the basis of distinguished service to Alamo Heights. Their high ideals and guiding purpose have led the way in the activities of Alamo Heights. Election to this organization is an eagerly sought honor with good reason, because throughout the years it has stood for the highest of standards.

Activities

The Olmos, long a byword at Alamo Heights, is headed this year by the editor, Dickie McEwen, and is sponsored by Miss Bessie Brigham, Messrs. Frank Heintzen and Louis J. Freeman. The Olmos is a notable example of group co-operation—without the aid of the scores of people who have extended their services without thought of recognition, the Olmos would never have been possible. These typists, copy readers, and the many others are splendid examples of the spirit of co-operation that is truly notable. In all things, the staff has been eager to serve, eager to make the Olmos worthy of the recognition and trust which is its heritage.

Our Guarantee to You

... SATISFACTION or Your Money Back

You can't lose at Sears.

In the first place, all Sears merchandise is FIRST QUALITY. It is made to the rigid specifications of our engineers, metallurgists, chemists, designers, stylists and long-experienced merchandise specialists. Sears goods are triple-tested . . . in our own great modern LABORATORY — where merchandises must prove its strength or confess its weakness—in FACTORIES, where our specifications must be met, and in the Field, under actual "in-use" conditions.

You would think that all this would be enough—but it doesn't satisfy Sears. Sears merchandise is designed by human brains, and made by human hands. Nothing human is infallible. So, just on the long chance that something might slip through, we say to you in all sincerity and good faith: "If anything doesn't make good—SEARS WILL!"

It is this pledge that has won the confidence of America, and held it through 62 years of historic selling. It is this pledge that sends millions of Americans back to Sears again and again every year—they know they are getting FIRST QUALITY, for perhaps no more than they might have to pay for "seconds", and that Sears will cheerfully and promptly refund their money, if they don't get complete satisfaction.

And that's exactly what we mean when we sign our advertising with—

A black and white photograph of a Nash dealership. The building is a single-story structure with a flat roof. On the left side of the front facade, the word "Nash" is written in a large, stylized, cursive script. To the right of this, the name "GLENN FOSTER" is displayed in a bold, sans-serif font. Above the main entrance, which consists of large glass windows, there is a sign that reads "You'll be AHEAD OF THE 7". On the roof of the building, a tall, vertical sign spells out "NASH" in large, block letters. Two vintage cars are visible through the glass windows of the dealership. The foreground shows a sidewalk and some small bushes.
